Canadian Carcinoid NeuroEndocrine Zebras – CNETS Support Group Guidelines

CNETS Canada's social media sites are places where we encourage respectful interaction, support and discussion between neuroendocrine cancer patients and caregivers.

Please be respectful in your interactions and refrain from:

- Naming fellow patients
- Naming specific hospitals or medical centres/institutions in a negative light
- Naming specific doctors in a negative light
- Posting religious messages specific to a certain faith

We reserve the right to remove anything that is against the above noted rules and/or we deem:

- Abusive, disrespectful or personal attacks
- Material that is unlawful, obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, abusive, slanderous, hateful or embarrassing to any other entity
- Third party advertising
- Chain letters or 'spam'

We also reserve the right to terminate involvement by users who post such content.

For your safety, you should never include your phone number, email, address or other personal health information in a post. Additionally, please be very cognizant of the fact that if you post personal health information on this forum, CNETS Canada cannot be held responsible for the protection of such information as this is a social media forum with hundreds of participants and your information is visible to all members.

The views and opinions expressed on the Canadian Carcinoid NeuroEndocrine Zebras - CNETS Community Support Group sites do not necessarily represent those of the CNETS Canada. Therefore, we cannot be held responsible for the accuracy or reliability of information posted.
